NOTICES TO MEMBERS

Seniors' Lifestyle Expo will be held at the RSL Stadium on Tuesday 18 August 2015 from 10am to 1pm. See President's Report – next page – for more details.

See page 6 for details of two great sets of Friday talks – one in August by Donna Kippax and one in November by Nanette Grace.

PRESIDENTS REPORT

Seniors week is almost on us again. This year, it will be held between 15 and 23 August. Make sure you get your full value of information, activities, and free goodies by attending the Seniors' Week Lifestyle Expo on Tuesday 18 August. The venue is the Murray Lyons Crescent, Annandale. Time: 10am to 1pm.

In the past, exhibitors have been allowed more than one table, but because of the popularity of this event the number of exhibitors has increased, and Council has limited each exhibitor to one table. This year, the table allocated to U3A Townsville will be for publicity only, with a few small displays available for any group wanting to promote their class. The table will be set up by Yvonne Campbell and Mary Collins up to 10 a.m. Kathy Joyce and Kate Eagling will take over from 10 to 11, followed by Kay Torkington and Hazel Ball from 11 to 12. Yvonne and Mary will return at 12 to start packing up.

This year there will be two sessions for the Seniors Luncheon, both at the Murray Lyons Crescent, Annandale: Thursday 20 August, 10:30am - 1:30pm OR Friday 21 August, 10:30am - 1:30pm. The event is free, however bookings are essential and close on Monday 3 August or until full capacity is reached (1300 878 001). Seniors of 70 years or older are eligible for free transport to and from the venue (check for times and starting venues on the Council web site).

And don't forget Seniors Music Day: Sun 16 August on Magnetic Island. This event is held at the picturesque setting of Alma Bay and includes a live entertainment program and afternoon tea. The program starts at 12:30.

ANOTHER MYSTERY TRIP

I have organised a mystery trip for Saturday 19 September 2015. There will be pickups from the usual places - the Palmetum at 7.45 am then inbound at Spotlight car park on the roadside nearest to Spotlight entrance at 8am. We will visit three, maybe four venues and enjoy a hot, two course lunch at a country pub. I am also hoping to arrange morning tea. We will return by 5pm.

Last year our mystery trip was very popular and was completely booked out so if you intend going, please book early. The cost is $24 for the trip plus $16 for the lunch which is optional. Lunch will be either roast beef or crumbed whiting with vegies or salad and chips. There will be a choice of two deserts plus unlimited tea and coffee.

You can pay me for the trip and the lunch at the U3A office, cash or cheque (we don't have card facilities). I will be there from 9.30am to 11am Mondays and Fridays. Otherwise make alternative arrangements to pay when you call to book.

Phone 47214484 after 5pm or 0499 89 2558 anytime.

CLASS NEWS

INTERNATIONAL FOLK DANCING GROUP

The International Folk Dancing Group celebrated its first birthday in mid-June, complete with birthday cake and candle. We have learnt over 20 dances from countries as diverse as Romania, Russia, Israel, and France, and I am very impressed with the progress that the dancers have made. As well as increasing our fitness and mobility, we can see improvement in our balance and coordination. It is a lot of fun, and we revise the steps of each dance when we do it so that newcomers can feel free to join at any time. Come along and give it a try!

Call Philippa on 0417780016

EXERCISE CLASSES FOR SENIORS

For fun, fitness, and good company, it's time to join a class! The U3A classes have you rotate through about 20 activities using varied equipment for up to 2 minutes at each to improve your balance, build strength, improve co-ordination, maintain joint mobility, etc., all important at our age! Please first contact the tutor of your preferred session, as listed in the Class Timetable. (Or Mahn Cooke on 4755 0715 for a group at another time or day). You will enjoy the sessions! There is a cost of $9 each time you attend.

U3A member, Brenda Forrest received a First Place in the Art Section of the Townsville Show. Her work is shown here. Brenda is a member of the U3A Creative Writers' group who are understandably very proud of their members' achievements. Brenda said that the award was very encouraging. Well done, Brenda.

CLASS NEWS AND OTHER

Magnetic Island – just trying to survive the cold really

Don Kinsey

Most activities pretty much normal. I'm getting a bit uncertain whether the science class is really as enthusiastic about Elementary Physics as they had indicated earlier. The numbers seem to be shrinking somewhat. We may need to look for a change of subject matter. However, bringing physics into the real world of motor cars did seem to inject a bit of renewed vigour.

Following the very successful Music Appreciation event held a few weeks ago in the Friday Talks slot at Aitkenvale, we recently held a similar activity on the Island for members from Townsville. We listened to the music of the very popular Russian composers from the Romantic Period of the 19th century and of the almost equally popular Russian composers of the 20th century. It was a delightful afternoon -- it was a pity very few members thought it worthwhile to make the trip!

A recent outstandingly successful free concert (not U3A) was performed on the Island by the Queensland Youth Orchestra Big Band. About 200 people attended on the lawn of the RSL Hall. This compares somewhat surprisingly with only about 80 attending their concert in Townsville.

General enquiries – Don Kinsey (47 581 349) If you want to know what's happening on the Island (not just U3A) try going to www.whatsonmagneticisland.com.au.

Do you need advice with Windows computer problems or an Android tablet? Call Jenny Sebba on 0411 405 781. She can help over the phone or will come to your home.

Do you like to get out and about but you'd like a little assistance? ComLink has many activities which might interest you. Just as an example – On Friday 28 August, Comlink has a Movie Club morning. You can have morning tea at Otto's Market or Lulu's then select which 10.30am movie you want to see at Warrina Cinemas. Transport is $10 and Movie also $10. For more information, go to Comlink's website at www.comlink.org.au or telephone them on 1300 761 011. Their Website has a full calendar of future events.

Do you need things done around the home from time to time? I wanted a shelf put up, a clothes line and a fridge seal fixed and a few other small tasks I couldn't do myself. Kev came out, put in a solid hour, did the lot and asked for $50! Give Kev from AAA Odd Jobs a try on 0432 194 266. Mention U3A at the same time. Kathy Joyce

FRIDAY TALKS IN AUGUST

THE THEATRE OF THE SELF

The 20th Century saw great advances into Western thinking about the nature of the human mind. "Mind" is a metaphysical concept and is not synonymous with "Brain". Mind is best understood as 'Self'. My series of lectures will look at some of the major thinkers of the past century, using the literature, movies and theatre of our time to illustrate their constructs. Hence my title "The Theatre of the Self".

Here are some of the topics which I will give over 4 lectures on Friday afternoons commencing 2 pm on Friday 7 August at the Aitkenvale Library.

"This is not my Hat" by Jon Larssen, children's book that gives us a toddlers' guide to Sigmund Freud'.

"The Awakening" by Kate Chopin. A late 19th Century novella which gives us a foretaste of many of the 20th Century's great researcher/clinicians.

"Phantom of the Opera" by Andrew Lloyd Webber. A terrifying plunge into the unstable mind of the Borderline Self.

"Jesus Christ Superstar" by Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice. Enter the mind of a man who could look centuries ahead of his time without flinching, and be repelled by another who could not see beyond the immediate moment.

"Gone Girl" by Gillian Flynn. Get sucked into the mind of a female psychopath.

"Catch 22" by Joseph Heller. Empathise with Heller's anti-hero.

"Carnage" by director Roman Polanski. A movie where we experience the havoc wreaked by disjunctions; an outcome of failed empathy.

Come along, and hopefully learn a little about your own awesome inner Self.

Donna Kippax

A NEW COURSE IN NOVEMBER.

A LITTLE OF WHAT YOU FANCY

It was George Bernard Shaw who remarked that there is no sincerer love than the love of food. In this course we combine both love and food as we take famous lovers in history and learn about the diet of their day.

Week 1 - Friday 6 November will be all about Napoleon and Josephine. Did you know that he took his chefs with him on campaign and that while there, as he pined for Josephine, they created dishes especially for him, dishes that are well known in French cuisine today?

Week 2 - Friday 13 November will focus on Shah Jahan, the man who built the world's greatest monument to love, the Taj Mahal. His most beloved wife was Mumtaz Mahal and she sometimes accompanied him on military campaigns and shared his food. Indian food will be our topic this week.

Cleopatra and Mark Anthony were famous lovers who were also prodigious feasters and who laid bets on which of them could provide the costliest feast. Cleopatra won when she dissolved her huge pearl earring in a glass of wine then served it to Anthony. We will feature Egyptian dishes at this session in Week 3 - Friday 20 November

Our last pair, Catherine II of Russia and her (fifth) lover Grigory Potemkin scandalised the Russians and all of Europe too. For Catherine though, Grigory was only the beginning. She is known to have had at least twenty lovers - a great appetite for love and food. Week 4 is on Friday 27 November - we will feature Russian food.

History notes and research by Nanette Grace. The food will be cooked by Raya Koskela. Raya taught international cooking for many years and she has kindly offered to provide tastings and recipes each week from the food of the relevant country. So come along, enjoy tasting some authentic exotic food, have a cuppa and hopefully learn a little something as well.

Pop it in your diary now – Fridays, 6, 13, 20, and 27 November - Aitkenvale Library Meeting Room. 2pm to 3.30 pm.

Nanette Grace.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES U3A Mid-year function

If you didn't make it to the mid-year function, you missed out on wonderful performances by the Ukulele Man, Bush Poets, poetry readings, singers and much more. Compered with her usual verve by Kay Torkington, it was a thoroughly entertaining morning, with the usual scrumptious morning tea following. See some photos below (courtesy Jenny Sebba and Don Kinsey, thanks).

The following is an extract from a wonderful song written by member Joan Twine. An excellent rendition of this was sung at our mid-year function by Townsville Music Group.

LIVE LIFE TO THE FULL (An Anthem for Senior Citizens)

There is something we just cannot ignore
And for some, it's reason to complain.
We're older than we've ever been before,
But younger than we'll ever be again.

*We're growing older every single day
So do your share of living
Before you pass away.*

*Yes, we're growing old,
So grab it by the throat
And do you share of living
Before you miss the boat.*

Members, please feel free to invite friends to our social functions. Who knows?

Perhaps they'd also like to join U3A?

FIRST FRIDAY AT THE GALLERY

World of Wearable Art is now in Hawaii and, no doubt, is WOWing viewers there too! However, members who've been planning their NZ visits can see the WOW Museum in Wellington NZ and visit its birthplace in Nelson on the South Island.

"Country and Western: landscape re-imagined" opened on Friday 24 July to add to the attraction of "Strand Ephemera". It will be the venue for our September Gallery visit.

If you've not seen the magnificent large scale works of William Robertson in southern galleries, "Country & Western" will really give you that sense of place that is unique to this part of the North Australian dry tropics.

It may even recall memories of "The Flying Art School"; Adult & Juvenile Eisteddfod; Choral Societies; Picnic Races; Country Dances and Christmas Concerts.

"Strand Ephemera" coincides with my "Annual Staycation" passion of the Australian Chamber Music Festival's 25th year. (Another first for Townsville!)

Until next time - enjoy the lifestyle that is this part of Australia.
